

MOUNTAINSIDE

SUBMITTED PHOTO

Kidsabilities carnival attracts hundreds for free family fun

Children's Specialized Hospital and Kohl's recently co-hosted the fourth annual Kohl's Kidsabilities carnival at Children's Specialized Hospital in Mountainside. More than 1,000 community members came out to enjoy free food, games, pony rides and prizes while learning more about Children's Specialized Hospital programs and the children they serve. Above, Joey Marranca of Fanwood tries to win a prize. The event was made possible by Kohl's, which, since 2000, has donated more than $3 million to Children's Specialized Hospital through the proceeds from "Kohl's Cares for Kid's" merchandise. The hospital, which serves children affected by brain and spinal cord injuries, premature birth, autism, developmental delays and life-changing illnesses, has seven sites in New Jersey and treats 17,000 children each year. To help, or for more information, visit www.childrens-specialized.org.

