

Kids honored for green thumbs

PHOTOS BY DAVID GARD/FOR THE STAR-LEDGER

A garden grows in Fanwood

Over the past several months, children attending Children's Specialized Hospital's cognitive rehabilitation program in Fanwood have nurtured a garden in front of the Fanwood Post Office. The children planted the garden to practice the strategies they have learned in their therapy. On Friday, they were honored for their work by borough, hospital and post office leaders. At right, postal employee Evans Alexander thanks the children for the garden.

